

October 9, 2024

Criminal Finances Act 2017 Statement

At Veracode, Inc. (referred to hereinafter as “Veracode”, “we”, “our” and “us”), we are committed to upholding the highest standards of ethical conduct and financial integrity in all aspects of our business operations. We operate with fairness, transparency, and in full compliance with all relevant laws and regulations.

We maintain a zero-tolerance stance toward any form of tax evasion and will not condone or facilitate such practices within our organization. Any involvement in tax evasion, whether by an employee, agent, or any individual or entity acting on behalf of Veracode, poses a serious threat to our reputation and undermines the trust and confidence that our customers, partners, and stakeholders place in us.

It is the responsibility of every Veracode employee to actively prevent, detect, and report any suspicions of tax evasion. We have established clear and confidential channels, as outlined in our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, where employees can raise concerns about any such activities without fear of retaliation.

This statement was approved by Brian Roche, Chief Executive Officer.

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a large, stylized 'B' followed by a long, sweeping horizontal line that extends to the right. Below the signature is a solid horizontal line, likely representing a signature strip.